PROFESSIONAL GUARDIAN OF YOUR HOME

Full control over security

How many times when answering the video doorphone you heard "Please open. Letter carrier", after which a suspicious man without a uniform appeared in the stairwell? Or how much would you give on a Saturday night knowing that a curious neighbor from the property next door calls your wicket, not your colleagues? If your intercom does not give you full control over who you let into your property or company, it is time to choose a modern solution, which is a video doorphone. It is a device thanks to which you will not only see and hear the person at the door but also open the entrance gate without leaving the house. The Qoltec brand has in its offer video doorphone, which are ideal for both your company and home.
